NEWS OF ALEXANDRIA

Organization of Presbyterian Brotherhood Completed.

Final Preparations Made for the George Washington Celebration. John Wright Is Denied.

WASHINGTON HERALD BUREAU.

(Bell Telephone 113.) Corner of Prince and Royal Streets. a public meeting. An interesting musical programme was rendered under the direc tion of George B. Kennedy.

Washington Day Plans. The final meeting of the George Washin the Friendship fire engine house, when a number of details connected with the exercises which will mark the anniversary observance received attention. The meet- Discovered That Strange Trio at ing was presided over by A. D. Brockett, president of the association. Treasurer Harry Hammond announced that he had only a limited number of tickets left for the banquet which will be given in Mc-Burney's Hall, at 2.30 o'clock, the after-Washington. The list of speakers will be

Following its well established custom,

Final arrangements have been made by to-day, Judge Nicol overruled a motion in the house of counsel for Jehn Wright, colored, who was sentenced to be hanged for assault, but who was granted a stay of execution by the State Court of Appeals, for imnediate trial of the prisoner under the indictment charging him with the murder of Jackson Boney. The motion was argued it considerable length by Attorney James Clements for the defense, and was E. Clements for the defense, and was opposed by Commonwealth Attorney Mackey. The case was continued until the next term of court. The session today was the opening one of the February day was the opening one of the February found in the "Hermitage" containing Find Suspect Driving a Team. day was the opening one of the February $5,000 i were set for trial. A special grand jury

The fire department was called out this by Claude Lennon, at 604 King street. vive. The fire, which was confined to some articles in the window, was extinguished by a chemical apparatus. The damage done was slight.

A fire this morning just before 7 o'clock damaged a stable in the rear of the residence of Frank Cox, on Cameron street, but was prevented from spreading by the active work of the firemen. About the

The funeral of Mrs. Sarah E. Skillman, Methodist Protestant Cemetery.

Funeral services over the remains of afternoon from the residence of his son Chesser, 908 Duke street. Capt.

At the annual meeting of the stockfollowing directors were elected: O. Jones Rixey, John P. Robinson, Gardner

A colonial tea, under the auspices of street, Thursday evening, February 21.

Kilpatrick to Be Overhauled. Special to The Washington Herald.

Newport News, Va., Feb. 18.-The army transport Kilpatrick, which arrived here to-day from Havana, Cuba, will leave tomorrow for the Moore Iron Works, at New York, to be repaired and overhated News Shipbuilding Company has been city frequently. He has long been active by contract. The Kilpatrick brought back awarded a contract by the Mattson Steam in Democratic politics in the Eighth disfrom Cuba ten first-class passengers, sev from Cuba ten first-class passengers, seventeen second-class passengers, and forty-one troop passengers, the largest passen-steamship, to ply on the line between San coming race for the Congressional seat one troop passengers, the largest passengers passengers, the largest passengers passengers, the largest passengers passengers, the largest passengers passenge Railroad Lets Big Contracts.

Special to The Washington Herald Roanoke Va., Feb. 18,-The Norfolk and Western Railway to-day announced the erwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. ested in the present trend of affairs. awards of contracts for building six big Leatherwood, of Mount Airy, Md., and tunnels between Vivian, W. Va., and W. Marion Baldwin, son of Dr. T. M. Roderfield, and shortening the route be- Baldwin, proprietor of the Laurel Demotween those stations by twelve miles. The work will cost $3,000,000, and will be come day. The wedding was so carefully planwork will cost $3,000,000, and will be com-pleted in three years. Rhinehart & Davis, ned that no one except a sister of the pleted in three years. Rhinehart & Davis, ned that no one except a sister of the bride was let into the secret. double track tunnel at Vivian.

Marries His Sister-in-law.

Special to The Washington Herald. Winchester, Va., Feb. 18.-Roger J. Wood and Miss Daisy Morrison, daugh-Wood and Miss Daisy Morrison, daughter of Thornton Morrison, both of Clarke survived by her husband and one daughter to force his opinion upon the survived by her husband and one daughter to force his opinion upon the burning to force his opinion upon the survived by her husband and one daughter to force his opinion upon the burning t County, Va., were married to-day in the ter, Miss Pauline Wahl. The funeral will ject seem, on the face, somewhat radical, Southern Methodist Church at Berryville take place Wednesday afternoon. by the pastor, Rev. J. Harry Smith, The bride is a sister of the groom's first wife, who died about three months ago.

Charles Hawkins Passes Away.

Special to The Washington Herald. Winchester, Va., Feb. 18.-Charles Hawkins, of Capon Bridge, Hampshire County, W. Va., died yesterday after a lingering illness, aged eighty-five years. He served in the Confederate army, Three sons and three daughters survive.

BROOKES-BAKER CASE ENDS.

Fine of $5 for Fullure to Obey Summons Is Paid. pecial to The Washington Herald

Winchester, Va., Feb. 18.-The now famous Brookes-Baker case, which two months ago startled fashionable society in Winchester and all over Virginia and Baltimore and Washington, was finally MEMBERSHIP IS INCREASED closed to-day, when Judge William M. Atkinson, in the Corporation Court, asessed a fine of $5 against Mrs. Alexander M. Baker for failure to obey a summor although it was anticipated that no in dictment would be found against A. Bos-Three Banquets to Be Given-Mo- well Brookes, the Alexandria society man tion for an Immediate Trial for who was charged with threatening the life of Mrs. Baker.

Brookes, it will be remembered, was under treatment for dissipation at Win-chester Memorial Hospital, when, at his solicitation, Mrs. Baker and her daugh-Alexandria, Va., Feb. 18.—With the adoption of its constitution and by-laws and the selection of its name, the organization of the Presbyterian Brotherhood perfected this evening at a well-attended meeting held in the lecture room of the to a total of about sixty. President the case Judge Atkinson said no damage appeared to have been done by Mrs. Balantel Stansbury, who presided, named several committees, and it was announced that arrangements will soon be made for that arrangements will soon be made for some notice be taken of it. Mrs. Baker burning and poisoning were the work of said she meant no disrespect to the court.

"HERMIT" BROTHERS DEAD

Day After Dan Succumbs.

Beane, Md., Had Accumulated Quite a Fortune.

Special to The Washington Herald. Rockville, Md., Feb. 18,-Through the noon of the anniversary. No tickets for Rockville, Md., Feb. 18.-Through the this function will be disposed of after death of Watterson and Daniel Green-Wednesday at noon. It is expected that field and the critical illness of their the gathering will number from 200 to 250 brother James, a trio, long known as the including many guests from "Hermits of Beane," a town in this the person concerned. county, the story of their curious life has become known to the residents of the Alexandria Washington Lodge of this section of the State, and is at pres-Masons will give a banquet in Masonic ent the principal topic of conversation. Henley lost several of his cattle Jon-athan Magruder, a resident of this Cemple the evening of the 22d. Among The three brothers lived on a farm, and county, who is, and for a number of those who are expected to make speeches their retired existence led their neighbors years has been, employed as a conduc are Senator Flint, Representatives Towne to believe that they were as poor as the tor on one of the Washington electric and Flood, and Judge R. T. W. Duke.
The out-of-town guests will include a representative from Beverly Lodge, of amassed a considerable fortune. the Columbia fire engine company for the town, except on their occasional trips to leave the car the conductor, it is said, of the engine house on South St. Asaph tion to visit the "Hermitage." It was he picked it up is reported to have re-In the Alexandria County Circuit Court they did all their work in the flield and ductor what he intended to do with denominations and silver.

Dan Greenfield died Friday and "Watt" f which James is now suffering.

the bodies to be laid side by side in evening about 6 o'clock for a blaze in a Mount Zion Baptist Church Cemetery, at show window of the drug store conducted Beane. James is not expected to sur-

NEGROES PROTEST DRAMA.

Public Meeting at Richmond Asks That "The Clausman" Be Barred. ecial to The Washington Herald.

Richmond, Va., Feb. 18 .- "The Clanssame time a slight fire occurred at the his book of that name, which deals with the young man and asked him concerning thing. residence of Norman Treakle, on South a phase of Southern history little under- the residence of a person they were ostenappear in this city Friday and Saturday. it has aroused indignation on the part of whose death occurred Thursday night, the colored people of the city because took place this afternoon from the resi- of its dealings with questions and things dence of her daughter on North Pitt concerning that race, and they to-day street. Rev. Dr. W. F. Fisher, of the held a public meeting for the purpose of First Baptist Church, conducted the serv-lees, and the interment took place in the formulating a complaint to be presented pression of the performance. The colored ministers of the city are among those opposed to the production of the Capt. Ephraim Chesser, who died last Recently the town council of Suffolk night, will be held at 2 o'clock to-morrow refused to permit the production of the of the State Corporation Commission juries at the Washington County Hospital. holders of the Virginia Safe Deposit and Trust Corporation, held here to-day, the have returned from Alexandria County O. Washington, Arlington and Falls Church Lynchburg, Va., Feb. 18.—On account of Lead- Railroad. The hearing, which was re- the illness of Judge Gordon, the opening L. Boothe, T. J. Fennon, C. C. Leadbeater, Henry K. Field, Henry Baader, sumed in this city, was continued until of the Amherst Court to-day was deferred ant when he first visited him in the a great number of young women who had night on the roof garden; that he had no thought of killing White that Protestant Episcopal Children's Home at night on the roof garden; that he had no thought of killing White that protestant Episcopal Children's Home at night on the roof garden; that he had no thought of killing White that protestant Episcopal Children's Home at night on the roof garden; that he had no thought of killing White that night on the roof garden; the had no thought of killing White that night on the roof garden; the had not have been provided by the roof garden. George S. French, and J. K. M. Norton. March 2. The railway in question is an until Wednesday, when Judge Alken, of Tembs. electric line.

Chesser was sixty-five years of age, and ARLINGTON LINE UNDER FIRE. Complaints Against Road.

the Epworth League of the Methodist line transfer case will be taken up by the Episcopal Church South, will be given at commission. This action is to com Confederate Veterans' Hall, on Prince pel the West Hampton line to give and ac ept transfers to the patrons of the line

The 2-cent passenger rate cases will e continued before the commissioners one week from to-day.

Secretly Married in Washington. Laurel, Md., Feb. 18 .- Miss Ethel Leath-

Mrs. Sophia Wahl Dead,

pecial to The Washington Herald. Laurel, Md., Feb. 18.-Mrs. Sophia Wahl, wife of Julius Wahl, died to-day at no misgivings as to his course as party her residence, on Main street, of con- leader on this question. He will not at-

MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP

TWENTY-FIVE CENTS A BOTTLE.

CLEW TO POISONER JURORS HEAR WILL READ IN COURT

Authorities After Man Who Destroyed Live Stock.

in Car-Goes to Rockville, Where He Points Out Suspect in Henley Case-Grand Jury Expected to Return Indictments in March.

Special to The Washington Herald. ter, Miss Virginia Cabell Baker, called. Rockville, Md., Feb. Is.—It is understood He is said to have charged Mrs. Baker that State's Attorney Robert B. Peter has of the Second Presbyterian Church was Baker. An exciting scene followed and a number of cattle and horses belonging to Oliver G. Henley, a well-known farmer and, as it was generally supposed that the the same person, much indignation was reated throughout the county.

Warfield expressed deep interest in the ington Celebration Association before the "Watt" Greenfield Passes Away the ber term of court devoted several days to making an investigation, failing, however, to unearth sufficient evidence to justify the finding of an indictment, notwithstanding the fact that the citizens of the county generally agreed as to the perpe-

It was thought that the possibility of ever finding the guilty person had about passed, but the sensational information now in the possession of the State's attorney will, it is said, more than likely result not only in the finding of an indictment by the grand jury, which meets here next month, but in the conviction of Suspicious Stranger on Car. It is stated that shortly before Mr. had every appearance of being from the The "hermits" were seldom seen in country. As the passenger started to replied: "Kill cattle belonging to a fel- tices of Stanford White, low named Henley." died the next day. Dan was fifty-eight years old, and "Watt" was sixty-eight. Dan died from a stroke of paralysis, and "Watt" from an attack of pneumonia, Henley home, the poisoning of the cattle of which James is now suffering. being referred to at the same time, it It is reported that in preparing for the funerals of the brothers papers were incident in the car, but that it recently found showing that the trio owned several dawned upon him that his passenger two drove to the Etchison neighborhood mitted the crime he was probably a resi- this noon." ing a team along the road, and as soon as man." Thomas Dixon's dramatization of the man." It is stated that they stopped ing at documents; I won't concede any-my question as to how he felt he said:

Find Suspect Driving a Team,

More convinced than ever that he had torney located the poisoner, Magruder soon afterward called upon State's Attorney Peter and told him what has been related. He as a result of Magruder's disclosures, an surprise so far as the person is concerned.

and then shot himself with a pistol, at the silk mill late on Friday evening, died at Richmond, Va., Feb. 18.-The members 3:30 o'clock this morning from his in

HOOE TALKS POLITICS. Virginia Democrat Pays Tribute to

William Jennings Bryan.

Mr. James C. Hooe, of Snickers Gap, ounced this afternoon that the Newport region, and business brings him to the Navigation Company, of San Francisco, to trict and is one of several party men > Bryan, Mr. Hooe is naturally much inter-"Democrats generally, I believe," he said "deplore the tendency toward centralization, but I am pleased to see such a unanimity of feeling in Congress in favor of stringent railway rate regulation. Of course, the present law should have a > fair test, but if it prove inadequate, then it should be strengthened without delay There is no sentiment in the party-cettainly not in Virginia-for government ownership. I am unalterably opposed to it. Knowing Mr. Bryan as I do, I have I regard Mr. Bryan as a great conservative force and a man whom the country might implicitly trust in any emergence think, too, that the masses believe in m more firmly than ever vefore."

Hooe expressed more than passing nterest in the slogan sounded by the Charlottesville Progress for Roosevelt. He attached no special political significance to it, but said it indicated that regardless of party affiliation, there was wide-spread admiration of Roosevelt on count of his courage and his honesty. | witness had a tilt. Mr. Jerome snapped as legal adviser both for Stanford White McMillan in doing honor to his name.

CONTINUED FROM FIRST PAGE. questions?"

legal redress for four young women as dditional evidence of the unsoundness of Thaw's mind when the will was drawn.
Dr. Evans said that in his opinion the the codicil the utmost precautions were taken to prevent the names of White's "No: I was n to appear before the January grand jury. Suspicion Aroused by Package Left alleged victims and of alleged accomplices of his from becoming public. In every case the person was referred to as "one Miss Blank" or "one Blank."

This precaution was not observed in the cases of Anthony Comstock or Dr. Jerome. Parkhurst, to whom, as well as to several "Was Prosecutor vs. Expert. Mr. Jerome had a lively session with Dr. Evans. Evans, in which the expert came out very well. The district attorney endeavored the district attorney, sarcastically. ing: 'Good day, doctor, I am very sorty.

The district attorney endeavored the district attorney, sarcastically. ing: 'Good day, doctor, I am very sorty.

"I am able to say a good many things "I told him the papers hadn't anything in the papers hadn't anything the went." to get the doctor to say this, he would meeting held in the lecture room of the church. The membership was increased church. The membership was increased control of the church of the on the theory that paranola is incurable. Mr. Delmas read it to the jury, omitting created throughout the county.

The county commissioners offered a reward of $1.000 for information leading to the arrest of the guilty person. Gov. Warfield expressed deep interest in the o tatters on the day the defense began ed, an adjournment was then ordered putting in witnesses. Whatever the dissensions among Thaw's unsel, it was announced to-day that they have all been healed. There did not seem, however, to be any too much corliality exhibited between the two camps. Lawyer McPike, who dusted off the Californian's chair with his customary elaborate precaution. When Thaw came in he had a whispered talk with Mr. Delmas. Juror Bolton on Duty.

The appearance of Juror Bolton in the box put an end to any fear of a mistrial. The juror had told Justice Fitzgerald that e would be able, despite his bereavement, give his whole attention to the case. The courtroom was not much more than nalf filled at either session, more than half the number of spectators being newspaper men. The hippodrome element of the trial has been most exemplarily reduced to a minimum, The afternoon session of court opened p with another check to the defense When Dr. Evans resumed the stand, Mr. Delmas showed him the codicil to the Thaw will and asked him if he had read banquet which will be given by the company tor the banquet which will be given by the company the evening of the 22d in the hall been known to have received an invita-Mr. Delmas was obviously much surtion to visit the "Hermitage." It was thought that they were barely able to thought that they were barely able to marked: "I mustn't leave that behind; Then counsel asked him if the codicil the physicians and counsel on that occation that his act had been some of the names Thaw had sion.

What concussion ung you read the document, the physicians and counsel on that occating the physicians are continuous to the physicians and counsel on the physicians and counsel on the physicians are continuous to the physicians and counsel on the physicians are continuous to the physicians and counsel on the physicians are continuous to the physicians and counsel on the physicians are continuous to the physicia contained some of the names Thaw had slor mentioned to him in the interviews at poison, the young man is said to have the Tombs as being victims of the prac-

Mr. Jerome objected at this point to be noted as improper conduct on the part is all that is required by the rules of eviof the learned district attorney.

Delmas and Jerome Have Tilt. was called. He had no sooner taken his first visit to Thaw on August 4 last. stand however than Mr. Delmas changed A short while ago Conductor Magruder his mind and recalled Dr. Evans. He Thaw from Mr. Hartridge and was finally in most of his visits to Thaw in the early life in that city

'to call men here after seven months of ters over. Magruder is said to have remarked: "He's preparation and fritter away time look- came from Hartridge, and in response to

"Mr. Jerome," remarked Mr. Delmas, stood by the world at large, is billed to sibly looking for, but that the young man icily, "you are not compelled to concede were piled together. Then he continued: Delmas, appear in this city Friday and Saturday, did not seem inclined to talk, and hung anything, even ordinary courtesy. That is 'Lew Delafield, a lawyer, and the firm of "Yes," his head and almost immediately pass- your right, if you choose to exercise it."

'proceed, doctor, with your reading."

Dr. Evans Reads Will. It took Dr. Evans nearly twenty minutes to read the nine typewritten pages of the is in this matter. will Harry Thaw executed on the day of his marriage to Evelyn Nesbit Thaw.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Hagerstown, Md., Feb. 18.—D. Frank Sulterswinch, of Moline, III. Interment will be made in view of the letters which you have already read and synder, manager of the Snyder Silk Company, who attempted to kill his partner.

Wh. Thaw said Dr. Dana also had called, but he had refused to let him consumption, although he was finished. "In view of the facts you testified to this be had finished with his own attempted."

Wh. Thaw said Dr. Dana also had called, but he had refused to let him consumption, although he was finished. "In view of the facts you testified to this be had finished with his own attempted to kill his partner." Snyder, manager of the Snyder Silk Com- in view of the facts you testified to this physician, asked them to excuse him until Chesser was sixty-new years of age, and with its state whether in your epinion was well known here as a river man. His wife and several children survive are survive of State Corporation Commission Hears in your epinion into an asylum and prevent his case in collusion with the district attorney's office to run him into an asylum and prevent his case in collusion with the district attorney's office to run him into an asylum and prevent his case in collusion with the district attorney's office to run him into an asylum and prevent his case in collusion with the district attorney's office to run him into an asylum and prevent his case in collusion with the district attorney's office to run him into an asylum and prevent his case in collusion.

"I am of the opinion," said the witness. 'that at the time the defendant executed these papers he was not of sound mind.'

On Thursday next the West Hampton case will then be heard by the grand jury, cross-examination of Dr. Evans. He got everybody else to have all these matters tiary. out of the witness that the form of un-soundness of mind the defendant had shut away from the public." developmental insanity. Mr. Jerome asked visit on August 21 last. if it was paranola and the witness said would not classify it as such. Va., was at the Metropolitan Hotel for a lusions were systematized and Dr. Evans was nervous and agitated and looked at Contract for Big Steamer Let.

Newport News, Va., Feb. 18.—It was an few hours yesterday. He is extensively said they might be or might not be, he engaged in farming in the mountain could not say as to that from merely peculiar stare. He had an air of seif tinuously to one parent delusion.

Expert Match for Jerome, Dr. Evans mentioned as one delusion. my first visit.

As a close personal friends of many Dr. Evans and the district attorney years' standing of Hon. William Jennings had a long sparring match about the word "parent" as applied to delusions. Dr. Evans would not admit that there I never wanted to shoot the creature. were any delusions shown by the will never wanted to kill him. I knew he was which could be called parent delusions. a foul creature, destroying all the moth-> answering as the learned district attorney so he would be brought to justice." "Yes, he is, exactly," replied Mr "Then," asked Mr. Delmas, "why in-

Because I do not wish him to walk plied; this was an act of Providence. For his sorrow and regret. nto a hole without seeing the hole," said my part I would rather have had him the district attorney.

everybody grinned. 'I say that there is a well defined de-

Mr. Jerome. Jerome Gets Snappy. A little further on Mr. Jerome and the

"A little," said the witness, wearily. to be?" Insisted Mr. Jerome,

"No; I was not trying to get the truth,"

"Oh, you were not," the witness came back grimly, "All right." "No, sir; not from you," retorted Mr.

to be used by them for prosecuting mind as not to know the difference be-

That was a paranolac when the will was that I am not permitted to say." Noto do with my examination, but he went drawn in the Tombs. Had he been able body in court had any doubt about the out of the room and that ended the visit." nature of those things.

Then the codicil was offered in evidence,

One of the spectators in court was Dr. over the unnecessary delay caused by Wiley, whose testimony Mr. Jerome tore documents not being to hand when want-until to-morrow morning.

Insane, at Morris Plains, who was on the Mr. Delmas came in with the ever-fathful stand last Thursday when the trial was it read. witness.

Mr. Delmas took up the direct examination of the witness, thus resuming his withdrawn. position as leading counsel.

Dr. Evans was asked to relate the conersation he had with Thaw during his first three visits to the defendant in the District Attorney Jerome submitted to should produce any notes he may have taken at the time of the interview, "That is a matter for general cross-ex-mination," ruled Justice Fitzgerald. "Although I am not compelled to do so," did Mr. Delmas, "I will examine the witness on the points so as to satisfy the learned district attorney."

"That ended the note taking," said the but I will have to depend entirely on my Here Mr. Jerome again objected. "This witness," he declared, "says he may omit essential facts.

Dr. Evans' First Visit. After some further argument Dr. Livans The objection was overruled, and Dr. was excused and Dr. Graeme Hammond Evans began to relate the incidents of his was called. He had no sooner taken his first visit to Thaw on August 4 last.

able the defense to recall Dr. Charles G. Wagner, superintendent of the State Hospital for the Insane at Binghamton, N. Bradford was seventy-five years old. He

The funeral services over the body of communicated his suspicions to his uncle, handed him a copy of the Thaw will conducted to his ceil. He gave me his Tombs, and testified briefly last week, Mr. Bradford was known for his char-Dan were held yesterday, and to-morrow the interment of "Watt" will take place. The gave he had read it. It is the work and several days ago the hypothetical question, that Thaw was in the hypothetical question, that Thaw was in hypothetical question, the hypothetical question hypothetical q "Why," said Mr. Delmas, after glaring such as we seldom see and in an agitated ford White. in the hope of finding the young man re- in a surprised way at his associate coun- manner he asked me to have a seat bein the hope of finding the young man re-ferred to, their idea being that if he com-sel, "I understood that you had read it side him on his cot. He looked at me a long time and then said; dent of that locality. According to the story, almost the first person they saw after reaching that section was the young I am perfectly willing to do so."

"You have different eyes from Dr. Conversations at the time a person is of Hamilton. Your eyes look as if you were a sane man. His eyes suggested insanity."

"You have different eyes from Dr. Conversations at the time a person is of Hamilton. Your eyes look as if you were a sane man. His eyes suggested insanity."

"You have different eyes from Dr. Conversations at the time a person is of Hamilton. Your eyes look as if you were a sane man. His eyes suggested insanity."

"You have different eyes from Dr. Conversations at the time a person is of Hamilton. Your eyes look as if you were a sane man. His eyes suggested insanity."

"He is survived by his wife, who was a sane man. His eyes suggested insanity."

"I obtained a copy, but I have not had time and the sand."

"You have different eyes from Dr. Conversations at the time a person is of Union to the sand."

"He is survived by his wife, who was a sane man. His eyes suggested insanity."

I am perfectly willing to do so." "I think it is perfectly absurd," snapped a sane man. His eyes suggested insanity." the district attorney, jumping to his feet, been sent by Mr. Hartridge to talk mat-

'Oh, I'm all right,' "The words were nervously uttered, and 'I do exercise it," said the district at conspiracy with Jerome so as to close this matter up and railroad me off to an asy-"Nevertheless," resumed Mr. Delmas, lum. They want to have me declared insane. It is all rot. There's nothing to it can tell the court and the jury all there to do so."

Dr. Evans said the arrival of the prison er's wife and mother interrupted the inter-

Displayed No Fear.

Tombs.

not been inclined to crime. He declared it striven only to get evidence against the to be the scheme of his own lawyers and man so as to send him to the peniter.

Then the district attorney took up the to be the scheme of his own lawyers and man so as to send him to the peniter.

Dr. Evans next described his second "Thaw came into the examination roo: Mr. Jerome wanted to know if the de- in his arms. It was filled with papers. He learning that they existed at that one importance, as if he was telling us what time. Witness said that defendant's delusions were not so fixed that held con- tion himself. He said he felt all right and slept very well. He then proceeded to tell us the same story of persecution he had related to me on the occasion of > sought every pure-minded woman who "'I tried to save them,' Mr. Thaw said to us, and added: 'I did all in my power.

"It is very plain that the doctor is not to trial. I wanted to get him into court, Providence Took Charge,

"I then asked him why under such cir cumstances he had shot Mr. White. "'Providence took charge of it,' he re- he sent the family a message expressing suffer in court the humiliation the revelucharitable," reiterated Mr. Delmas, and lancey Nicoll, the attorney, was acting sible way with the friends of Se and to Comstock. He regarded this as "I asked him why he had carried a pla out: "Do you pay any attention to the tol, and he said Roger O'Mara, an independent detective in Pittsburg, had advised him to do so after he had told O'Mara that on several occasions thugs "What did you understand my question had jostled him in an attempt to get him into a quarrel and street brawl. He said Dr. Evans said that in his opinion the man who dictated those provisions was of man who dictated those provisions was of mosound mind at the time.

Throughout the reading of the will and lusion or insanity here, and I tried to making a personal attack. He said White he codicil the utmost precautions were give it to you." him into a quarrel and then beat or kick him to death."

Scientific Deductions. The witness next went into a descrip tion of his third visit to Thaw on September 19. He was accompanied by Dr. "Was the defendant when he executed Wagner and Mr. Hartridge. Thaw came tween right and wrong?" asked Mr. Je-rome a little later.
"I am unable to say," answered Dr. looked after at once. He then turned papers. Thaw said the papers had to be looked after at once. He then turned "What are you able to say?" inquired abruptly about and left the room, say-

The whole drift of his examinations to most of the names mentioned in it, espedate has been to fix the temporal cially the names of the young women cause he dismissed his counsel and physibe that he will get sufficient admissions victims.

In June, 1882, he went into the regular clause he dishinsed in advance that be that he will get sufficient admissions victims. we should come here for the purpose indi- gineer. During the Spanish war he served putting aside professional men whom he Capt, Kearny reached the grade of com had been assured were there through no mander. A year later he was attached "Did he mention to you the names of for five years. He attained his captaincy any of the young women who he said in March, 1963. From June 5, 1965, until had read it in part and had heard all of February 19. stand last Thursday when the trial was adjourned, was recalled to-day as the first appear in the codicil?"

"Did he mention to you the names that FUNERAL OF CHAS. SCHNEIDER District Attorney Jerome objected to the question in this form and it was Employe of Interior Department

> "Did Mr. Thaw say to you that he was Declares He Is Sane. "Yes, sir, He said 'I am not insane."

he court the contention that the witness that they are not insane?" of them do it."

not think they could prove it. Relating Thaw's act of self-importance, of Washington's most gifted Dr. Evans said he did take some notes Dr. Evans said: "He wanted me to She organized the Columbia Heights Art of one visit, but they were meager and had been lost after he turned them over the bis stenographer. He took his assist- and only Harry Kendell Thaw and there is the stenographer. He took his assist- and only Harry Kendell Thaw and there.

> n act of Providence?"
> "That it was an insane delusion. "Are not repentance, remorse, and fear of punishment the normal conditions of a sane man after he has committed an act of homicide, and the absence of these elements an evidence of unsoundness of pleases," interrupted Mr. Delmas, "and take exceptions to it, and I desire it to gerald, "but give his best memory? That found in the sane mind, and, in my opinion, the absence of these feelings is an indication of mental unsoundness.

versation with Thaw. Under the rule that Oriental Commandery, K. T

Refuses to Be Examined. "As a result of your visits to Mr. Thaw on August 21 and September 19 last, did you reach a conclusion as to the mental condition of the defendant?" asked Mr. Black, Ofcott Gruber & Bonynge are in opinion he was at that time insane, terday morning in his apartments in me that Drs. Austin Flint, Carlos Mac- ill for several weeks, the immediate cause sent by his own attorneys. He said the lawyers and doctors were in collusion exponent 1.20 Rev. Teunis Hamilin of will and codicil, was of sound or unsound spoke of the alleged wrongs the man had done to innocent and pure-minded girls. 'the beast,' or 'the blackguard,'

Dr. Wagner repeated Dr. Evans' state-this afternoon. The interment will be when Thaw dismissed his attorneys and

At this point the luncheon recess until 2 p. m. was ordered.

FUNERAL OF F. J. CARMODY. Pallbenrers.

Last rites over the remains of the late Francis J. Carmody, who died in this cal education in Europe. He is survived city Saturday afternoon, will be held at by three brothers, Henry, Frank, and the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Iseman.

mody to Miss Margaret Louise Snow, wanted through legal means to bring him John E, Fenwick, and John E, Monk,

The Commissioners are in receipt of a communication from the North Capitol But Mr. Jerome returned to the "parent anything, to bring Stanford White Into clusion" subject.

"I say that there is a well defined do."

"He said he had gone to see Arthony Chiration, plant Manual "I say that there is a well defined de-lusion," said Dr. Evans, finally, "but as to whether it is a parent delusion I can-not say."

Comstock, District Attorney Jerome and a private detective agency. He said Mr. Jerome had told him he had better let the "That is what I have been trying to get you to answer several times," cried it; the detectives told him they would take the matter up, but they had not operate with the Commissioners, the govsubmitted a proper report. As to Mr. ernor of the State of Michigan, and the Comstock, he said, he discovered that De- mayor of the city of Detroit in every pos-and to Comstock. He regarded this as another link in the conspiracy against CAPT. KEARNY DEAD him.

Naval Officer Passes Away at His Fishkill Home.

FUNERAL OF CHAS. SCHNEIDER

Services Over Remains of Interior Department Employe Will Be Held at His Late Home on Fifteenth Street This Afternoon-C. A. Bradford, Former Postal Employe, Dead.

The death of Capt. George H. Kearny, J. S. N., at his home in Fishkill, N. Y., on February 17, has been reported to the Navy Department. Capt. Kearny was born March 31, 1848, at Saugerties, N. Y. He was appointed acting third assistant engineer of the navy in October, 1866, and was sent to "As a result of that visit did you draw the Naval Academy. He subsequently any scientific deductions from Mr. Thaw's served at the New York Navy Yard, and again after that at the Naval Academy. "Yes. He displayed a highly explosive Up to this time Capt. Kearny's service

In June, 1882, he went into the regular cated. He displayed defective reason in at the Naval Academy. In March, 1899, had suffered wrongs at the hands of Stan-ford White?" asked Mr. Delmas.

Before the witness could answer Mr.

Before the witness could answer Mr. Morning Session.

Delmas withdrew the question and asked the New York Navy Yard. At the time of his death he was on sick leave. The burial will take place at Saugerties on Passes Away Suddenly. Funeral services of Charles Schneider of the Interior Department, who died Sunday, will be held to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at his late home, 2039 "Is it a common thing for persons suf- Fifteenth street northwest. Interment ering from unsound mind to protest will be made in Glenwood. Mr. Schneider was born at Highland "It is very common-about % per cent Falls, N. Y., September 9, 1856, and came to Washington in 1880 to take a post-Dr. Evans said Thaw declared that per- tion in the Census Bureau. Mr. Schneider haps 200 or 300 persons might be found married, in 1882, Miss Martha Lemon, who who would say he was insane, but he did survives him. Mrs. Schneider is well known as an artist and writer, being one had been lost after he turned them over to his stenographer. He took his assistant, Dr. C. C. Belling, along to take notes of the third visit, but Thaw dismissed "What conclusion did you reach as to what conclusion did you reach as to have the property of the third visit, but Thaw dismissed "What conclusion did you reach as to have the property of sisters, Mrs. Phillipine Munro, of New York, and Mrs. John Schmidt, of New > Old Employe of Postal Service Passes Away. Charles A. Bradford, for over thirty years an employe of the postal service. This ended the direct examination of and for many years a resident of Wash-Dr. Eyans, who was withdrawn to enable the defense to recall Dr. Charles G.

CHARLES A. BRADFORD DEAD.

and George B. Bradford, all of this city. The funeral will take place to-morrov from his late home. The interment will be made in Congressional Cemetery. Benjamin Butterworth. Benjamin Butterworth, jr., son of the late Representative Benjamin Butter-"Yes," replied Dr. Wagner; "in my worth, of Cincinnati, Ohio, died yes-When I visited him on August 21 he told the Wyoming, Columbia road. He was Donald, and William Mabon had visited of his death being heart failure. Inhim and had asked permission to examine juries received in a ball game when a They don't wan't me to come to trial, him and had asked permission to examine juries received in a ball game when a where I may be vindicated and where I him, but he had refused to allow them child impaired his health, and he had been an invalid the greater portion of his The three physicians mentioned are the life. Mr. Butterworth is survived by a sisallenists employed by the State in this cisco, and two by rs. Frank Butterernoon at 1:30, Rev. Teunis Hamilin of Emmett Manuel Hall, fifty-nine years "He never referred to himself, and did dead man,' and never by his right name." old, died yesterday morning, at Garfield He added that in those papers he found evidences of the same unsoundness of position as a prisoner charged with murmind which he discovered in the defend- der. He declared that White had drugged he had no thought of killing White that Protestant Episcopal Children's Home at

> Funeral services will be held in the made in Rock Creek cemetery.

F. W. Iseman's Interment. Funeral services will be held this afternoon over the remains of F. W. Iseman, a well-known musician, who died Saturday at his home, 311 C street southeast, Rev Ushers at Wedding to Act as the Dr. Mohart, of Concordia Lutheran Church, will officiate. Mr. Iseman was born in Washington and lived here practically all his life. He received his musi-

Funeral of George Motts.

Services will be held to-day over the The pallbearers, most of whom acted body of George Motts, who died Friday came within the sphere of his observation. as ushers at the marriage of Mr. Car- at the Georgetown University Hospital. Mr. Motts was connected with the harstepdaughter of Senator Platt, of New ness and saddlery trade of this city for a York, fourteen months ago, are as fol- number of years, and was the holder of a lows: Capt, Charles D. F. Chandler, T. M. number of prizes awarded to him as the At one-time Mr. Delmas broke in with ers and daughters in America, but I Quarles, I. G. Costigan, Richard Curtain, result of the exhibition of his work at various State and county fairs through-Senator Platt will not be able to attend the funeral, as was expected, he having been called away to attend the funeral of his granddaughter in Owego, N. Y., which member of the Saengerbund and other will take place at the same hour as that German organizations, and also of Acaoff Mr. Carmod. Before his departure cla Lodge, No. 18, F. A. A. M. cia Lodge, No. 18, F. A. A. M. He is survived by Ex-Senator F. W. Motts and Henry T. Motts, of St. Louis.

PILES CURED IN 6 TO 14 DAYS.

and Mrs. W. H. Robinson, of Tacoma

